Vote Centers Open TODAY, Friday, May 22

Washington, D.C. - The DC Board of Elections (DCBOE) wants to remind you that all 20 Vote Centers open today. District residents from any ward can vote at any Vote Center location, and voters have the option to update voter registration, vote in-person, and submit ballots received by mail.

Vote Centers will be open Friday, May 22, 2020 through, Monday June 1, 2020 (INCLUDING WEEKENDS) from 8:30 am-7:00 pm (closed on May 25th for the Memorial Day Holiday). On Election Day, Tuesday, June 2, 2020 Vote Centers will be open from 7:00 am – 8:00 pm.

Not registered yet? You can register same-day at any Vote Center, as long as you provide proof of address. Acceptable proofs of address and Vote Center locations can be found on our website at www.dcboe.org.

The DCBOE would also like to remind voters that social distancing measures will be enforced, and voters will be required to wear face coverings inside the Vote Centers.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access and voter registration.
