Vote Centers Open Tomorrow, May 22

WASHINGTON, D.C. - All 20 Vote Centers open tomorrow, Friday, May 22. District voters from any ward can vote at any Vote Center location, and voters have the option to update voter registration, vote in-person, and submit ballots received by mail. Residents can also register same day at any Vote Center with proof of address – acceptable proofs of address and Vote Center locations are listed on our website at www.dcboe.org. Vote Centers will be open Friday, May 22, 2020 through, Monday June 1, 2020 (INCLUDING WEEKENDS) from 8:30 am-7:00 pm (closed on May 25th for the Memorial Day Holiday). On Election Day, Tuesday, June 2, 2020 Vote Centers will be open from 7:00 am – 8:00 pm.

The DCBOE would also like to remind voters that social distancing measures will be enforced, and voters will be required to wear face coverings inside the Vote Centers.

Most importantly, get out and vote!

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District of Columbia Government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access, and voter registration.
