

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
BOARD OF ELECTIONS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20003-4733

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 9, 2018

Contact: Rachel Coll
(202) 727-5411
press@dcboe.org

Eligible Voters Can Register to Vote In Person Through Election Day

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The District of Columbia Board of Elections (DCBOE) would like to remind District residents that in-person voter registration is available up to and including Election Day. October 16 is the deadline to register online, by mail, or through our mobile app, Vote4DC, but residents can still register after October 16 in person.

Interested residents can come to the Board's office at 1015 Half Street SE, Suite 750, to register in person anytime until Election Day. Voters can also register at the polls either during Early Voting (at any Early Voting Center) or at the polling place for their current address on Election Day.

Whether registering at our office or at the polls, a proof of address will be required. Acceptable proofs of address include:

- Current and valid District of Columbia DMV issued ID
 - Government check or paycheck*
 - Bank statement*
 - Current utility bill*
 - Student housing statement/tuition bill
 - Homeless shelter occupancy statement
 - Lease
 - Other government document
- * The issue, bill, or statement date must be within 90 days of Election Day.

For additional information, please visit us online at www.dcboe.org.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access and voter registration.

###